Time: See table for each project

Logistic information is found in document ISO/TC 211 N 1124, and is the same as for the other ISO/TC 211 meetings.

Enclosed is a table listing all the editing meetings.

The editing management committee has appointed a chairman for each editing committee. The question of editors is still open. Each convenor has been asked to appoint members from their WG to the editing committees to ensure harmonization with the different ISO/TC 211 standards.

P-members or liaison members may appoint one member to each editing committee, preferably one that has been actively working in the project team. The chairman of the editing committee may ask other members of the project team to participate where he finds this appropriate.

Those appointed to an editing committee must participate at the whole meeting. Exceptions are those representing other parts, where participation can be limited to those items that are connected with the project he/she is representing.

Members who want to have a representative at the editing meetings are kindly asked to notify the secretariat or the as soon as possible, and no later than 2001-10-08.

General information for members of the editing committees is available at <http://www.statkart.no/isotc211/EC/InformationEC.htm>

As soon as the ballot period is over, a compilation of the comments will be distributed directly to the members of the editing committees.
