Notice of editing meeting

ISO CD 19131, Geographic information — Data product specifications

Venue

Hotel Freienhof
Freienhofgasse 3, CH 3600 Thun, Switzerland

The meeting is in conjunction with the ISO/TC 211 plenary, and logistic information is available in document N 1409.

Start of meeting: 2003-05-19/21

The editing management committee has appointed Dr. Hiroshi Imai as chairman and Dr. João de Matos as editor of the editing committee (EC).

Each convenor may appoint members from their WG to the EC to ensure harmonization with the different ISO/TC 211 standards.

P-members or liaison members may appoint one member to the EC, preferably one that has been actively working in the project team. The chairman of the EC may ask other members of the project team to participate where he finds this appropriate.

Those appointed to an EC must participate at the whole meeting. Exceptions are those representing other ISO/TC 211 projects, where participation can be limited to those items that are connected with the project he/she is representing.

Members who want to have a representative at the editing meeting are kindly asked to notify the secretariat (bjs@nts.no) as soon as possible, and no later than 2003-04-22.

General information for members of the editing committees is available at <http://www.isotc211.org/EC/InformationEC.htm>

The relevant documents for the EC are:

N 1401: CD 19131 Geographic information – Data product specifications

Result of voting and comments on N 1401. This document will be issued immediately after the voting closes on 2002-05-04.

The secretariat will prepare a sorted version of the comments for recording of the EC actions. This document will be available at the ISO/TC 211 home page, and all appointed members of the EC will also receive information directly regarding this.
